CERTIFICATION & ACCREDITATION (C&A)

The LATG Information Assurance team is a premier provider of information system and cyber security services for many portions of the Federal Government. Our team has demonstrated success with the Department of Defense Information Assurance Certification and Accreditation Process (DIACAP), Director of Central Intelligence Directive 6/3 (DCID 6/3), National Information Assurance Certification and Accreditation Process (NIACAP) and a variety of other DoD Component and Federal specific Certification & Accreditation (C&A) processes.

By leveraging our industry and vendor partnerships, our personnel can provide any level of C&A services needed to obtain mandatory certification credentials. Our C&A services include definition, threat assessment, verification, validation, documentation, and delivery of draft or finalized documentation associated with all phases of C&A processes.
